We invite you to apply to participate in Snoqualmie Railroad Days. Volunteer firemen and their wives organized the first festival in 1938, and the popular community event is still going strong. Promoting the spirit of a small town community, while taking place in beautifully historic downtown Snoqualmie, WA, Railroad Days will include attractions for everyone in the family. Now in its 73rd year, the Snoqualmie Railroad Days Festival is produced today by the Northwest Railway Museum. We look forward together with you, to putting on a fun-filled, successful event that will become better with each passing year.

Friday evening, the Snoqualmie Falls Brewing Co. will be serving up the suds in the Eagle's beer garden and the food vendors will be serving up great festival treats while you dance to the music on the main stage.

Saturday morning kicks off with a pancake breakfast at the firehouse and fun runs by www.runsnoqualmie.com. The fun will continue with the Grand Parade, train rides, more great bands on the main stage, delicious food, arts & crafts, railway and logging equipment demonstrations and more. In the Children's Field of Fun, enjoy award-winning entertainment on the Children's Stage. Build a banana racer and cheer as it speeds down the track. Run a model train in Norm's train yard. Visit the Arts in the Depot in the pavilion near the gazebo and see pottery and paintings crafted before your eyes.

Saturday evening, dance to live music at our main stage venue while you enjoy the food, beer and festivities.

Start Sunday with breakfast at the Eagle's Hall and then feast your eyes on over 200 classic cars brought to you by the Legends Car Club. View the paintings being created while you watch by participants in the Plein Air Paint Out and round out your day with more great bands, artists in action, and all the fun activities from Saturday.

Snoqualmie Railroad Days is August 19th – 21st. You won't want to miss it!
